

Dear Colleague:

Re: Membership in the Canadian Capital Cities Organization

This letter is an invitation to become a member of the Canadian Capital Cities Organisation CCCO.

The (www.ccco-occ.ca) comprised of representatives of Capital Cities Council members and staff, national and provincial capital commissions along with representatives of Legislative Assemblies, is a uniquely positioned organization that works to create celebration, education, connection and pride across Canada through the diverse story of each Capital City.

The Board of Directors recently adopted a 2021-2025 Strategic Plan that will interactively engage capital city residents on current critical issues. The strategic plan is a tool for action – a blueprint illustrating how we can take a planning document and turn it into inclusive, accessible initiatives that educate the public and membership on the symbolic and substantive role of Capitals and provide experiential value for members.

In April, the CCCO launched its Strategic Plan with the first of a Speaker Series, this session on capital city roles in rebuilding visitor economies after COVID. The second session presented discussions on Reconciliation. Upcoming open sessions will present dialogues on Placemaking and Remembrance.

We have also published the first edition of Capital News, our quarterly newsletter that will feature news, initiatives, from our members while promoting our Capital Cities as destinations of choice to visit.

Looking forward to your participation in the Canadian Capital Cities Organization.

Sincerely,

Marianne Alto, President
Councillor, City of Victoria
